Chips

George Washington, 0; Fordham, 20. George Washington, 0; Lafayette, 28. George Washington, 0; St. Francis, 32. Totals, George Washington, 0; Opponents, 80. Next game: George Washington vs. City College of New York. Fill in the blanks yourself.

All high school juniors and seniors of Washington and surrounding communities will attend the game Saturday. George Washington students who want to see the game should be there early if they want seats. Personally, we have already reserved a good seat on the 50-yard line, and we, our pipe, and the girl friend shall be there for the kick-off.

A Brooklyn paper prints the following: "Lafayette vs. George Washington—Teams with names like that should not be fighting each other. They should mass together against a common enemy."

We guess that the same wise-cracker will say that George Washington is not a gentleman when he beats William and Mary. Gentlemen should not strike ladies, you know. But we remind him that William and Mary teams are called Indians, and George Washington specialized in Indian massacres. If you don't believe it, ask General Braddock, or Professor Holt.

Last week's Hatchet listed among the men to be initiated into Gate and Key a man who is prominent in dramatics and publications. The story this week doesn't mention him as being among the initiates. We understand that he forgot all about the ceremony. Forgetfulness is the sign of genius, and perhaps that's why he was bid.

Headline in The Hatchet reads: "Home Economics Class Trying Drink Recipes." Maybe the Home Ec Department was responsible for the fire in Building 10 the other day, instead of Chi O.

But that headline's not so bad as one in our contemporary journal, The Hoya, of Georgetown University. One of their heads reads: "Fish Chosen Leader of G. U. Collegians." We don't list our aquarium at G. W.

Catholic U. gloats over the "George Washington cripples," and forecasts dire events on November 29. If we remember correctly, the St. Louis Cardinals sneered at the Yankees who barely staggered through the closing days of the American League season. A warning should be sufficient.

The Sig Alpha's are throwing their annual Bal Bohème on Friday night, and are moving to their new house the next day. We've got to attend this affair, for when any fraternity holds a dance, and leaves the wrecked house for a new home the next day, the invitations should be at a premium.

We wonder if these good-looking English debaters will want dates while they're here? If so, the entertainment committee can count on us. Just leave the invitation at The Hatchet Office, please.

Mrs. Coolidge will head the list of patronesses at "The Kingdom of God." Watch how the Pi Phi's turn out with their rushees! Yes, Cal chose a Pi Phi for his bride some years ago.

Dr. Ragatz' new book rates so highly that he has 250 copies ordered before the volume comes from the press. Now if the Ghost Staff had the professor for a business manager or a feature writer—

In the same issue of The Hatchet we read of swimming, tennis, baseball, football, basketball, track and hockey. Say, what kind of weather is this that we are having, anyhow?

Dr. Bartsch has discovered a Delroty Bartsch, a new breed of lizard, it would seem. Wonder if Dr. Bartsch has classified the particular kind of animal that Coach Crum says drinks cokes or milkshakes instead of playing football.

Did you notice that the baby Colonials beat St. John's? Now all that is necessary is to keep these varsity men of 1929 from flunking out of school, and all will be well for the proverbial "next year."

We're having our Cherry Tree photo taken now, so there'll be no excuse for its not appearing in the magazine this year. We understand that one full page has been devoted to

WOMEN DEBATERS ENGAGE BRITISH ON U. S. INVASION

British Women on First International Tour in Women's Debating History

SUBJECT OF INTEREST TO GENERAL PUBLIC

Question is "Resolved, That The Popular Reading of Psychology Is Undermining Morality"

Corcoran Hall, Room 1, will be the scene of the International Debate to be held this year on October 31 between The Women's Debating team of George Washington University and the team of British Women which is touring the United States. The question is "Resolved, That the popular reading of psychology is undermining morality." The subject is one which has great possibilities and should prove of interest to the general public, and especially to students in the University.

Helen Prentiss, Ruth Kerman, and Marjorie Mothershead have been selected to represent George Washington. All these girls have been outstanding in debating and other activities during their college careers. Helen Prentiss is manager this year, after last year, her first in the activity. The business end of the publication has succeeded beyond all expectation. Many new contracts for advertising have been gained and the many satisfied advertisers of previous years have all renewed their business relations. Business Manager Thompson reports that the outlook of The Ghost is very prosperous.

Although not certain, there is a possibility that the contract for printing will be awarded again to The Read-Taylor Company, Baltimore. This firm has had the privilege before and altogether satisfied the University authorities, but there is a slight delay at present in awarding the contract.

As before, The Ghost will appear eight times and the first number is to be called The Political Number. There is no doubt that there will be several travesties on the present political situation and that the Art Staff will play these up in a comic light. The cover, as always, will be in color.

Under the auspices of the National Student Federation of the United States of America, of which Edward Miller of Washington and Lee is president, and Martha Biehle is vice president and chairman of International Debating, the British team is making a tour of the United States and will meet teams from most of the better known girls' colleges in debate. The topics under discussion are varied as well as unusual. Besides the one which George Washington is to debate, there are four others: "Resolved, That the coeducational system is a failure; that there should be an international language; and that governments of the present day depend on an appeal to prejudice."

This will be the first visit to America of all the British girls, and the Student Federation is doing all possible to make their tour pleasant. While in Washington, the team will be guests of the University Women's Club. Arrangements have been made for them to meet the President of the United States and the British Ambassador. Dean Rose will entertain them at a tea and supper.

In previous years the International Debate has been between the men's teams. George Washington has always achieved remarkable success and the women hope to repeat their performances this year. In 1926 the George Washington team was selected as the one to represent the United States in England. The women's team has all the support and encouragement of all in the university. Even though it is early in the season and there has been little time for preparation and practice debates, they feel confident that they will win in their first international encounter.

Lloyd Joins History Department Staff
Graduate of Springfield College, After Stay in Santo Domingo, Becomes Ragatz' Assistant

George William Lloyd, graduate of Springfield College, is a new member of the staff of the History department replacing E. C. Wine of last year's staff, as assistant to Dr. Ragatz.

After graduating from Springfield College, in Massachusetts, in 1924, Mr. Lloyd earned his Masters of Arts degree from Clark University at Worcester, Massachusetts. He later went to Santo Domingo to study social conditions.

In Santo Domingo, George William Lloyd organized a night school for native workmen. He also established a Boy Scout organization which developed until there were eighteen units.

After leaving Santo Domingo in 1927, Mr. Lloyd went to England to study, and will probably make a return trip to Santo Domingo after a number of years.

GHOST TO APPEAR ON OCTOBER 31

Business Staff Meeting With Unusual Success; New Board Enthusiastic

POLITICAL NUMBER FIRST

Travesties on Present Political Situation are Expected to be Published in First Issue

With a secret surprise cover being prepared by Rowland Lyon, The Ghost will present its first issue on the 31st of October. Although various innovations are being introduced, the general scheme and style will be the same as prevailed last year. The magazine will contain thirty-two pages and will be the usual size.

The business end of the publication has succeeded beyond all expectation. Many new contracts for advertising have been gained and the many satisfied advertisers of previous years have all renewed their business relations. Business Manager Thompson reports that the outlook of The Ghost is very prosperous.

Although not certain, there is a possibility that the contract for printing will be awarded again to The Read-Taylor Company, Baltimore. This firm has had the privilege before and altogether satisfied the University authorities, but there is a slight delay at present in awarding the contract.

As before, The Ghost will appear eight times and the first number is to be called The Political Number. There is no doubt that there will be several travesties on the present political situation and that the Art Staff will play these up in a comic light. The cover, as always, will be in color.

OPEN DANCE PROGRAM ANNOUNCED BY COUNCIL

Three November Dances Planned By Interfraternity Council; First Nov. 3

In keeping with its policy of sponsoring open University dances, the Interfraternity Council through its social chairman, Bucky Herzog, announces the following dances: November 3; November 17, and a tea dance on Thanksgiving Day.

The dance on November 3rd will be in the Gymnasium from nine until twelve, at the customary subscription of one dollar, couple or stag. As this is the evening of the William and Mary-George Washington University football game, a special effort is being made to make it a gala affair. The gymnasium will be decorated with the fraternity banners and the floor put into excellent shape.

The proceeds of the November 17 dance will be used by the Council to pay off the deficit on the Junior Prom of last year. As a Junior Prom can not be given until this is paid off, the Council is taking this means of assisting them.

The tea dance on Thanksgiving Day will be held immediately after the Catholic University-George Washington game.

COLONIAL WIG

Students of all the colleges are urged to submit original manuscripts for consideration by the Colonial Wig staff for publication by that magazine during the year. All types of writing are acceptable—short stories, sketches, poetry, essays, and plays.

Note that the Wig receptacle for MS. has been changed from Building 6 to the first floor of Building 4, near the telephone. Submit soon for the November issue.

Contributions to the Stray Locks Department contest on "G. W.'s Greatest Need," should also be placed in the Wig box. The competition closes October 27.

ENGLISH HOCKEY PLAYERS FETED

Touring Team Entertained By Washington Field Hockey Club Tuesday Morning

VISITORS MEET COOLIDGE

English Girls Escorted by G. W. Members of Washington Hockey Club on Sightseeing Tour

The English Hockey Touring team, which is touring the United States, arrived in the city Tuesday morning, October 23, and was entertained by the Washington Field Hockey Club, of which Mrs. Russell is president and Miss Davis, manager. Miss Davis had charge of the program, which was arranged for their visit.

The English players were received by a reception committee, consisting of Mrs. Russell, Miss Davis, Jenny Turnbull, Hazel Sayre, instructor of hockey at Miss Maderia's school, Dorothy Green, representative of the National Girl Scouts, and Mary Haugen, instructor of hockey at Holton-Arms.

The girls from England were escorted on a sightseeing tour, which included the more important public buildings, by the reception committee and Caroline Hobbs, Louise du Bose, Elizabeth Zimmerman, Mary Sproul, Evelyn Folsom, and Ruth Chindblom, who are George Washington members of the Washington Field Hockey Club.

The Washington Hockey Club entertained the visitors at a luncheon given at the club house of the American Association of University Women. Miss Eugenia Davis arranged their presentation to President Coolidge at the White House and to the British ambassador, Sir Esme Howard, at the British Embassy. The visiting team was also guest at a tea at the home of Dorothy Green.

A match between the English Hockey Touring team and the All-Baltimore Hockey team was scheduled for today.

G. W. Students To Try For W. C. Durant Prize

Cash Prizes Offered For Best Plan For Enforcing Eighteenth Amendment Proves Attractive

Declaring that "The first duty of a good citizen is to obey the law," W. C. Durant announces the opening of a competition for "the best and most practical plan" to make the Eighteenth Amendment, which is part of the highest law of the land, the Constitution, effective.

The business leaders of the country, Mr. Durant goes on to say, are largely responsible for the "widespread disobedience to the liquor law as embodied in the Constitution." "Had our business leaders frowned upon instead of encouraging bootlegging; had they observed the law and encouraged its observance; had they used their money and their influence to obtain a fair trial for one of the best measures ever adopted by this or any other country—in other words if they had supported the Constitution of the United States—our public officials (including our judges), our children, our servants, our employees, and the thinking, public generally would have caught the spirit of law observance." Mr. Durant also believes that the majority of the people are in favor of the Eighteenth Amendment.

Plans must be typewritten, and not over 2,000 words. They must be submitted before December 1, to the Prize Committee on Eighteenth Amendment, Room 2401 Flisk Building, New York City. Prizes will be awarded and paid on December 25.

ORCHESTRA PLANS MADE

Tryouts for the University Orchestra will be held on Wednesday evening, October 24th, at 7 p. m., in Corcoran Hall. A rehearsal will follow the tryouts. Extensive plans are already in progress and everything indicates that a successful season may be anticipated. Virginia Crocker is manager of the orchestra and Professor Gropp is faculty advisor.

PATRONESS LIST TO BE HEADED BY MRS. COOLIDGE

First Lady Graciously Consents To Sponsor Columbian Women's Benefit

BRILLIANT AUDIENCE TO BE IN ATTENDANCE

Distinguished Washingtonians and Large Student Group Will Witness Ethel Barrymore Play

Mrs. Calvin Coolidge has graciously consented to head the list of patronesses for the Columbian Women's benefit theatre performance, to be given at Poll's Theatre on the evening of October 29.

With distinguished Washingtonians in the boxes and university students massed in the balcony, the audience which will witness the first Washington performance of Martinez Sierra's new play, "The Kingdom of God," starring Miss Ethel Barrymore, will be a brilliant and beautiful one. Miss Virginia Mitchell, President of the Panhellenic Association, and Mr. George Von Dauchenhausen, President of the Interfraternity Council, will occupy loge boxes, and each of the Greek letter societies and the Y. W. C. A. of the University will be represented by a large group of members.

The play is one which should be of particular interest to a university audience. Martinez Sierra is one of the two or three greatest of contemporary Spanish dramatists. Miss Barrymore is an actress who for years has held first place in the hearts of American audiences because of the perfection of her art and the magnetism of her personality. She has indicated a particular interest in the performance on the evening of October 29 because of her audience and the cause for which the benefit is being given, and it is hoped that she may confer the unusual favor of a curtain speech.

Patronesses Outstanding

The list of patronesses includes Mrs. Cloyd Heck Marvin, Mrs. Harvey W. Wiley, Mrs. John Bell Larnet, Mrs. Abram Lisner, Mrs. Joshua Evans, Jr., Mrs. Gilbert Grosvenor, Mrs. William Allen Wilbur, Mrs. Howard L. Hodgkins, Mrs. Charles W. Richardson, Mrs. D. Kerfoot Shute, Mrs. Cline N. Chipman, Mrs. William C. Hill, Mrs. Philip Sidney Smith, Mrs. Frederick E. Farrington, Mrs. DeWitt C. Croissant, Mrs. Christian Heurich, Mrs. Charles H. Tompkins, and Mrs. Delos Blodgett.

Mr. and Mrs. Caleb T. Lockerson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Williamson, and General and Mrs. Frank R. Keefer have been added to the list of box holders.

Mrs. Edwin Behrend is heading the Committee on Arrangements for the benefit and has serving with her Mrs. William E. Chamberlin, Mrs. Charles S. Collier, Mrs. John Paul Earnest, Mrs. Joshua Evans, Jr., Mrs. John Bell Larnet, Mrs. Marcelle Le Menager, Mrs. H. J. R. McNitt, Mrs. Cloyd Heck Marvin, Miss Irene Pistorio, Mrs. D. Kerfoot Shute, and Mrs. Harvey W. Wiley.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB TO BE CLOSED ON OCT. 26

Indications Point to Best Club in The History of George Washington University

Tryouts for parts in the Men's Glee Club, which are being held after the regular meetings every Tuesday and Thursday evenings, will be discontinued after October 26. This step was made necessary due to the large number of candidates that have applied.

In addition to over half the veterans of last year's club, about fifty new men have been assigned parts. According to Director Robert Home Harmon, if the club continues to progress with the same rapidity as it has in the first few rehearsals, it will develop into one of the best men's glee clubs in the United States.

With an unusual aggregation of voices, as to quality of tone and pitch, and a large collection of chorus numbers, which were selected from the hits of the last four years, all indications are that Mr. Harmon's presumption is correct.

Any student who was unable to attend the tryouts, should either see Mr. Harmon, or attend the meetings which begin at seven o'clock every Tuesday and Thursday evenings, in Corcoran Hall, Room 1. Three unexcused absences from rehearsals, will result in dismissal from the club.

SOPHS HOLD ELECTION

Richard Mattingly was elected president of the Sophomore Class of the Medical School at an election held on October 10. The other officers chosen were: Murray Jacobson, Vice-President and Joseph J. Nicosia, Treasurer and Secretary.

STUDENTS GIVEN MANY DEGREES AT CONVOCATION

Provost William Allen Wilbur Introduces Deans, Who Present Diplomas

SCHOLARSHIP CUP GIVEN TO OMICRON ALPHA TAU

A scholarship cup has been presented to Tau Chapter of Omicron Alpha Tau Fraternity by J. E. Lampe of Baltimore.

Mr. Lampe presented the cup with the intention that the name and average grade of that member of the fraternity attaining the highest scholastic average should be engraved upon the cup each year.

WHAT PRICE PARNASSUS?

"This is as gorgeous, desperate, dangerous, and uncomfortable an age," Struthers Burt once wrote, "as ever the world has known." And this is an age and a world which belongs to the undergraduate. Never before has the pattern of life been so distinctly moulded and colored by youth. Youth has always been served, but not to the tune played by the big universities today, by the administration, the trustees and alumni of those universities.

It is in the midst of this very embarrassment of riches, these many potentialities of full and poignant living, that the undergraduate may easily go astray. In a world which belongs to him, where the performances of his teams are spectacles whose settings would make a gladiator gasp, where, if he happens to be stage minded, he can present the kind of play he wants without consideration for box office returns, where he has a complete laboratory for the cultivation of any journalistic germs that may be within him, and where, moreover, participation in any of these activities is attended by the pleasant sensation of feeling himself "prominent on the campus," it is not strange that the undergraduate rushes in to every glamorous opening.

Once in, if he is possessed of some intelligence, more enthusiasm, and an adequate sense of responsibility, he eventually finds himself in a position of collegiate importance. At first, of course, it is sheer fun. But soon the undergraduate realizes that he is caught in a whirl of routine and that he can not get out. His days are crowded with committee meetings and board meetings and practices and rehearsals. He is in a constant whirl of effort and he achieves nothing that can satisfy his more fastidious self. He is forced to drop his friends and interests outside the university to do work—and it is work—which can not wholly absorb him, with people whom he likes but who do not absorb him particularly. He likes and admires his associates, he realizes that contact with them is traditionally one of the advantages of "activities," but in very rare cases are they the people with whom he wants to sit around and talk. He does not have time to sit around and talk, anyway. He has to preside at a committee meeting. So he goes and presides with all the efficiency and tact that he can muster, and all the time he knows that one afternoon of talk with people whom he deeply likes, whose minds and attitudes he can meet, is worth months of arid activity.

What is he to do about it? I do not know, in the case of the upperclassman. He has to make the best of his bad bargain, and perhaps if he learns something of that art the bargain may not be so bad after all. His trouble, of course, comes from too much activity. But until the day when a wise administration forbids participation by any student in more than two activities, generation after generation of college students will find themselves caught and embalmed in their own enthusiasms.

SERIOUS MINDEDNESS

Observers who pay attention to such things say that the student body of George Washington University is a strikingly serious-minded group of men and women. This is due to the extraordinary number who are engaged in self-supporting labor, to the higher average-age figure of the G. W. students.

For this virtue of industry, however, we pay a price dear to the American educational institution: A loss of the well-known 'rah-rah spirit. As a student body we are not ostentatious in publicly showing any feeling which we may feel for the university.

Whatever we may think of such a situation, it nevertheless exists; and the realization of this condition should make us all the prouder when the school excels in some of the ordinary college activities. It should give us genuine pleasure, for instance, when our football team, handicapped by a lack of so-called "moral support," goes on the field and holds some of the best teams in the East, such as Fordham and Lafayette, to insignificant scores.

And when the team wins—but who ever heard of a G. W. student being arrested for breaking up a downtown show during a celebration of his team's victory. We receive the winner's laurels as we accept the fate of the vanquished—in the manner of an average man listening to reports of the latest Chinese war.

However, this attitude may be praiseworthy, if the scholastic reports justify it.

With the advent of Halloween and the many fraternity parties which will be given—not to mention a little thing like rushing—the fair coed will have plenty to occupy her time during the next week. As Kipling once said—or was it Shakespeare?—Halloween may come and Halloween may go, but rushing goes on forever. We hate to argue with either of the noble gentlemen, but if "forever" doesn't mean the end of this week to the various fraternities concerned, Pan Hellenic will rise up in righteous indignation and say, "Now, now, we can't have this. We'll have to take fifty cents off your rush fund for violation of the rules," which would no doubt be extremely disastrous!

Chi Omega gave a dance at the Bannockburn Country Club on Friday night, October 19. Besides the rushers, for whom the dance was given, there were present the members of the active chapter, many alumnae and numerous stags.

The boys at the S. P. E. house have already started preparations for their annual Masked Ball to be held on Wednesday, October 31. Plans for elaborate and unique decorations are being made, and the famous refreshment counter will be in its usual place. Bran Hughes has promised that the music by his orchestra will be hotter than ever.

Sigma Kappa held a rush dance at the Bannockburn Country Club on Thursday, October 18.

Chi Omega entertained several of its freshmen rushers at a luncheon-bridge at the Columbia Country Club.

Alpha Delta Theta included among its rush parties last week a tea dance given at the Bradford School in Chevy Chase, Md., on October 20; a Spook party in the chapter rooms and surrounding territory on Tuesday night; and luncheons in the chapter rooms on October 18, 19, and 21.

Phi Delta has also been active in rushing, and has entertained with a progressive dinner on October 15; a Chinese bridge on October 18 at the home of Elizabeth De Kay, and a baby-party on October 19.

A Chinese supper held in the chapter rooms, a card party at the home of Flora Albert on Sunday, October 14, and a "Kiddie Party" in the chapter rooms on October 11 are among the novel ways in which Phi Sigma Sigma has entertained its rushers.

Alpha Chi Sigma held a very successful smoker on October 13 in Stockton Hall. The evening included several interesting talks and moving pictures and concluded with refreshments. A large number of the guests will remember the occasion as being the time of their initiation into the famous society of the "Yellow Dogs." The ceremonies were conducted by H. A. Leper.

The following men were pledged on October 14 by Phi Alpha: Meyer Silverman, Maxwell Chaffetz, Alexander Steinn and Harold Orris.

Phi Mu recently gave a party on board Marjorie Simonds' boat at which a number of rushers were guests. They also held a tea last Monday at the home of Anna Laura Sanford, and a bridge-luncheon at the Army-Navy Club on Thursday.

Woodrow Wilson Senate of Delta Theta Phi Law Fraternity held a smoker at the Hotel Lafayette on Saturday, October 20. Brief addresses were made by Professor Earl C. Arnold, Dr. Edgar Thompson, Leighton C. Taylor and James Burns. A large number of the members of the Alumni Senate were also present.

The Beta and Mu chapters of the Lambda Phi Mu Medical Fraternity held their annual smoker-dinner on Saturday, October 13th at "La Tosca" Restaurant. Grand Master Fred Piazza of Beta chapter made the keynote speech of the evening, following which he turned over the duties of master of ceremonies to Ralph of Corretuto of G. W. and Frank Corrao of Georgetown.

Beta Chapter of the Phi Delta Gamma Sorority entertained the women students of the graduate school of George Washington University at tea on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons in the Women's Building from 5 to 7 o'clock. The honor guests were Dean Henning of the Graduate School and Dr. Gertrude Richardson Brigham. Miss Evelyn Jones presided at the tea table the first day and Miss Emma Thom the second. Miss Emma Thom was chairman of the committee on arrangements and was assisted by Miss Margaret A. Klein and Miss Nina Booth.

Kappa Sigma announces the pledging of Robert Hoffman of Paxton, Illinois.

The A. D. P.'s, with several freshmen friends, went picnicking to Leesburg last Sunday afternoon where they had supper at the Inn.

The Phi Mu's held a cabaret party in the rooms last Friday night in honor of the rushers.

Delta Tau Delta will give a dance on October 27th. Emory Dougherty's Club Lido Band will furnish the music, and the evening is expected to be a complete success.

Among those attending the Navy-Duke game in Annapolis last Saturday were Margaret Bannerman, Adelle Black, Karla Heinrich, Kitty Beall, Catherine Spangler, Marion Butler, Elise Collins, Clouie Senterre, Marion Kreutzer, Louise Mackall, Betty Bradley and Peggy Rees.

The Alpha Delta P's were hostesses to a number of their rushers at the home of Barbara Miller where a Noah's Ark Bridge was held last Friday night. They also entertained at an attractive tea at the home of Louise Mackall on Sunday, October 21, and a very successful bridge and buffet supper Wednesday, October 17.

Chi Omega gave a "Slumber Party" at the home of Julia Denning on Sunday night, October 21. Aside from the fact that little if any slumbering was done, the affair was greatly enjoyed.

Gamma Beta Pi entertained its rushers with a tea at the home of Caroline Wilcox on Friday, a breakfast in the rooms on Sunday morning, and a tea in the rooms on Tuesday, October 23.

Delta Tau Delta announces the pledging of Thomas Hardy Seay.

Theta-Upsilon Omega announces the formal initiation of Wilber A. Blain last Sunday.

Gate and Key opened their social season Saturday night with a very successful dance at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon house.

A number of Kappa Deltas, both actives and alumni, attended the installation of a new chapter at William and Mary College on October 23.

Helen Furer gave a riding breakfast at her home on October 17.

THE CAMPUS SAGE

These Indian Summer days so rare make college seem a dull affair. Lessons start to pile up high—the thought of them just makes us sigh. A young coed passed by just now with a deathly look and frowning brow. "Well, what's your trouble," I inquired. "Oh these darn profs make me so tired," she said—and gave an awful groan. "Right now," she said, "I have to bone for an exam which comes at five, if at that time I'm still alive." In length she told how for three hours she had taxed all her mental powers to put away a thought or two in order that she would pull through. And finally she did conclude and say that every college student in Indian Summer should be free for football, dancing and for tea.

COLONIALS MEET THIRD STRAIGHT DEFEAT OF YEAR

Crippled Crummen Play Far
Below Usual Form and Score Nothing

ST. FRANCIS ELEVEN
SHOW UNUSUAL SPEED

Pennsylvanians Employ Varied Attacks and Give Early Indication
Of Heavy Score

Playing far below their usual form and without the services of three regular backs, the George Washington Colonials went down to their third straight defeat of the season Saturday, when they fell before the St. Francis eleven, 32-0.

The team was weakened considerably by the lack of a capable passer and could complete no more than 3 of its attempted 15 aerial heaves, while its opponents gained ground with 8 successful passes out of an attempted 18. The Crummen also had 3 of their passes intercepted, one resulting in a run to a touchdown.

The Pennsylvanians employed a varied attack in running up 12 first downs, while the Colonials were registering only 6, two coming as the result of penalties. With two linesmen converted into backs, the Hatchets were unable to produce an offense that could penetrate beyond their opponents' 48-yard line, with the greater part of the battle being waged in the District boys' territory. The loss of these two men was heavily felt in the line, inasmuch as the St. Francis backs ploughed through frequently for heavy gains.

Saints Score Early

The St. Francis aggregation gave an early indication of a heavy score when they rang up their initial touchdown in the first few minutes of play. In an exchange of punts, Kunzler ran Carey's kick back 40 yards to the Colonials' 15-yard line. In three plays the ball was taken over and Kunzler kicked the goal.

The second score came at the beginning of the second quarter when Billetteaux intercepted Carey's pass on the 40-yard line and ran the remaining length of the field to a touchdown.

No more scoring took place for the next few minutes, but toward the end of the half, the Pennsylvanians registered two more markers in quick succession. With the ball on the G. W. 26-yard line, Urson took the pass from center, and after hesitating as if to pass—turned and twisted to his left and ran the 26 yards to the goal. It was a neat fake pass and very well executed, fooling the Colonials completely.

McLaughlin Scores

In the last few minutes before the whistle blew, the Saints registered another six-pointer with two passes and three rushes from the 30-yard line, McLaughlin going over for the score.

The last score of the day came in the third quarter, when, starting on their own 25-yard line, the victors passed and rushed their way to the G. W. 42-yard line, from where McLister took Kunzler's pass over the final chalk mark. Kunzler kicked the goal, making the final score 32-0.

The Play:

First Quarter

Clements kicked off for G. W. to White, who ran the ball back to the 40-yard line. After three plays netted only 4 yards, White kicked to Carey, who signaled for a fair catch on his own 20-yard line.

Carey immediately punted to Sullivan, who ran it back 10 yards to the middle of the field.

McLister broke through to the G. W. 35-yard line, giving the Saints their first first down. Three more line rushes gave them another first down on the G. W. 23-yard line. Carey recovered a fumble for G. W. on the 15-yard line and after failing to gain, kicked to Kunzler, who returned the ball 40 yards to the Colonials' 15-yard line, Allshouse making a brilliant tackle from behind to keep him from running to a score.

On three plays, McLister went through for a first down on the G. W. 5-yard line and on the next play, Urson went over for a touchdown. Kunzler kicked the goal.

Berkowitz received the kick-off and ran back to the 26-yard line. Barrows went through tackle for 8 yards and Gates made a Colonial first down on the 36-yard line. Two line plays failed and Allshouse just missed catching Carey's pass. Carey kicked to Kunzler, who was downed on the St. Francis 32-yard line.

McLister made 3 yards. McLister went to the 44-yard line and a first down. G. W. took time more line plunges gave the Saints another first down on the G. W. 45-yard line. Two passes failed and the Saints took a 5-yard penalty. Urson kicked to Barrows, but St. Francis was off-side and was penalized 5 yards. Urson again kicked to Barrows who was downed on his own 25-yard line. Barrows was smeared 4 yards behind the line and Gates only picked up 3 yards. Carey then kicked to Kunzler, who returned the punt 22 yards to the G. W. 38-yard line. McLister went around end, placing the ball on the 35-yard line as the quarter ended. Score, 7-0.

Second Quarter

St. Francis' ball on the G. W. 35-yard line. A kick went out of bounds and G. W. took the ball. Carey's long pass to Berkowitz was knocked down and on the next play Billetteaux intercepted Carey's pass on the 40-yard line and ran to a touchdown. Kunzler missed the kick.

St. Francis kicked out of bounds.

G. W. was off-side and penalized 5 yards. St. Francis was penalized 15 yards for holding. Billetteaux circled left end for 10 yards. Francis threw Billetteaux for a 5-yard loss. Barrows fumbled the punt on the next play, but recovered and was thrown on the G. W. 20-yard line.

Carey lost two yards. Barrows fumbled on the 15-yard line and St. Francis recovered. Allshouse recovered a Saint fumble on the next play. It was a lucky "break" for the Colonials. Carey immediately kicked to Bruno, who signaled for a fair catch on the G. W. 45-yard line.

Bruno went through for ten yards and a first down. After a pass had failed, Billetteaux was thrown for a 10-yard loss by Van Meter. Billetteaux took Bruno's pass to the 35-yard line. Bruno again passed, this time to Abels, who ran to the 26-yard line. Urson went through center for a first down. On a fake pass, Urson hesitated and then turned and ran through the left side of the line for a touchdown. Bruno missed the kick.

Barrows took the kick-off to the 25-yard line. After Berkowitz had made 4 yards, Carey's pass was intercepted by Bruno on the G. W. 30-yard line. After failing to gain in two attempts, Bruno passed to Billetteaux, who ran to the 20-yard line and a first down. Bruno passed to Esper on the 11-yard line. Billetteaux wiggled to the 2-yard line and a first down, from where McLaughlin went over for a touchdown on the next play. Bruno's pass for the extra point was incomplete.

Barrows received the kick-off, but time was called over an argument. St. Francis claimed unnecessary roughness on the part of G. W. and claimed the ball on the G. W. 45-yard line. After Athey, acting captain, had protested against such a procedure, St. Francis was forced to kick-off a second time, Barrows again taking the ball to the 38-yard line. Carey's pass was incomplete. Berkowitz went through for 7 yards, as the half ended. Score, 25-0.

Third Quarter

Berkowitz took the kick-off to the 32-yard line and then made 5 yards through tackle. Barrows went through the same place to the 46-yard line and a first down. After losing 4 yards on two plays, Carey kicked out of bounds on the St. Francis 25-yard line.

The Saints were penalized 5 yards for off-side. Kunzler passed to Urson who ran to the 40-yard line and a first down. The Saints were again penalized, this time 15 yards for unnecessary roughness. Kunzler's pass was intercepted by Barrows in mid-field.

After three plays had failed to gain, Carey kicked out of bounds on the 25-yard line. St. Francis was penalized 5 yards for off-side. Kunzler passed to McLister who ran to the 38-yard line and a first down. Two line plays netted 7 yards before Urson broke through the center of the line to G. W.'s 42-yard line and a first down. G. W. took time out, and at the resumption of play, McLister took Kunzler's pass and ran to a touchdown. Kunzler kicked the goal.

Carey fumbled the kick-off and was downed on the 15-yard line. After two line bucks had failed, Carey kicked to the 45-yard line, but the Saints were penalized 5 yards for off-side and the ball was brought back. Carey kicked out of bounds on the G. W. 40-yard line.

McLister's pass was incomplete, but on the next play, he passed to Kunzler, who went to the 25-yard line. McLister went around left end for 5 yards, and after two plays had failed to gain, Kunzler's pass was intercepted by Barrows on the 15-yard line.

On the third play, Carey kicked to the 40-yard line, as the quarter ended. Score, 32-0.

Fourth Quarter

On the first play, Berkowitz intercepted a pass on the 35-yard line. After failing to gain, Barrows passed to Allshouse, who ran to the 42-yard line. It was the first pass that the Colonials had completed during the afternoon. On a fake pass, Carey was smeared, but the Saints were penalized and G. W. got a first down on their own 46-yard line. Three line plays resulted in the loss of 3 yards and Barrows passed over Carey's head, giving the Saints the ball on downs.

Carey recovered a fumble on the 38-yard line. Berkowitz hit the center of the line for 3 yards and Barrows went through right tackle for 8 yards and a first down. Barrows lost 2 yards at the left side of the line before passing to Allshouse for 8 yards. Barrows again went through right tackle for a first down on the 40-yard line. Barrows passed to Allshouse for 5 yards. The Saints were penalized 5 yards, giving G. W. a first down.

Carey recovered a fumble on the 38-yard line. Berkowitz hit the center of the line for 3 yards and Barrows went through right tackle for 8 yards and a first down. "Not a cough in a Film-ful" says Norma Talmadge after the Blindfold Test

"When you see my new United Artists' picture, 'The Woman Disputed,' you will notice that I smoke cigarettes in several scenes.

"Not wanting to show partiality to any one of the four leading brands, I decided to make my choice via the blindfold test, which I had heard of many times. Happily, I picked Old Golds.

"I found them smooth, mild and delightfully cool... Hereafter, when I am required to smoke I shall naturally insist on Old Golds. There's not a cough in a film-ful!"

SMOOTHER AND BETTER—"NOT A COUGH IN A CARLOAD"

COLONIALS WILL MEET C. C. N. Y. NEXT SATURDAY

First Home Game of Season To Be Played at Central Stadium

VISITORS' STRONG TEAM IS UNDEFEATED AS YET

Coach Crum Expects to Make Drastic Changes in Line-up

Colonial grid fans will have their first chance to see their favorites in action this Saturday, when the eleven from the City College of New York will be the guests of the Crummen at Central High Stadium. Play is scheduled to start at 2.30.

Although it is still uncertain whether or not Clapper and Lope-man, who were injured in the first two games will be able to play, Coach Crum promises to have a different team on the field from that which bowed to St. Francis last Saturday. Crum was not at all pleased with the results of that game, and may make some drastic changes in his line-up. Just who will be shifted is not known at present, but that there will be some new faces in the line-up, is more than likely. Should Clapper and Lope-man be fit, the backfield will be intact once more, with the exception of Sanders, who is out for the season.

Visitors Undeclared

That the team from the big town is no set-up, is seen from the figures which show three victories in as many starts for the New Yorkers, who just triumphed over Drexel Institute, 26-6, last Saturday. From all reports, they will be more than ready for the home team and seeking to avenge their defeat at the hands of the Colonials last year.

In the City College line-up are found seven lettermen who played with the team in 1922. Led by Captain Willie Halpern, who will be seen at right guard, the other men to return are, Clark, former captain, Barkman, Gannon, Schlacter, Bokst, and Blenstock. With Halpern on the line, the forward wall is said to be one of the scrappiest and heaviest lines to have ever represented the school. Gannon is the center who snapped the ball last year and is again proving his worth this season. Johnny Clark and Schlacter will be

In the backfield, the Lavender can boast of Barkman and Blenstock, both veterans from last year's team. Barkman, who has been a star ball carrier for the past two years, is again bearing the brunt of the kicking assignment and along with Blenstock, who is calling the signals, forms a pair of triple threat men, who were well up among the individual scores of the East last year. Barkman, who is a speedy open field runner, is serving his last year on the team and seems due to have his best season before him.

Blenstock, the quarterback, has the reputation of being a crafty field general and should bear watching by the Colonials on Saturday. This completes the roster of veterans on the squad, but the new men have been tried under fire three times now, and not found wanting.

As a whole, Coach Parker has a formidable aggregation at hand that is playing hard and fast football. With the exception of the four men lost by graduation, it is the same team that ran up scores of 80 and 58 to 0 scores against Upsala and Galaudet, respectively, last year and should give the Crummen no easy on Saturday afternoon.

But with the Colonials fighting mad as a result of their three straight defeats, there should be a hot battle on at Central with each team eager to win. A victory for the Crummen would give them their first victory of the season while a defeat for the opposition would be sweet revenge for the visitors. At any rate, it would not be wise to pick the winner before the whistle blows, as both coaches promise a fighting team, able to give the fans their money's worth.

GIRLS HOCKEY SCHEDULE TAKING SHAPE RAPIDLY

Over One Hundred Girls Are Participating in Popular Sport At G. W. U.

Varsity hockey practice is held regularly Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays on the Ellipse from two-thirty to three-thirty in preparation for the varsity team games.

Many of last year's dependables, including Alverson, Hobbs, Sproul, Chidblom, Folsom, Graham, Turnbull and Zimmerman, are reporting for practice. Altogether there are about forty-four reporting for varsity practice.

A tentative schedule for varsity games has been arranged as follows:

Nov. 17—St. Teacher's College—Harrisonburg, Va. At home.
Nov. 23—Swarthmore College. At home.

Dec. 5—American University. At home.
Dec. 8—William and Mary. Away.

Over a hundred girls are taking hockey as a requirement, practices being held on the Ellipse every day but Wednesday, from one-thirty to two-thirty, under the instruction of Mrs. Russell and Jenny Turnbull, Student Assistant.

Caroline Hobbs is manager of hockey and has as her assistants, Von Levinski, Folsom, Martin, Crumley, and Reed.

GREEK TOSSERS OPEN COURT PLAY IN GYM

Series Opened Monday Night With Phi Sig-K. A.; Two Games Remain This Week

Interfraternity basketball got under way last Monday night with the opening game between Kappa Alpha and Phi Sigma Kappa, followed on Tuesday by Sigma Chi versus Theta Upsilon Omega and Sigma Alpha Epsilon playing Acacia.

The remaining games scheduled to be played this week are Theta Delta Chi v. Delta Tau Delta and Kappa Sigma v. Sigma Phi Epsilon on Thursday night, and Sigma Chi v. Sigma Nu and Phi Sigma Kappa v. Acacia on Friday evening.

The first game of each evening started at 8.30 with teams in League One playing first followed by the games between those five in League Two.

All games are being played in the University gymnasium. The admission is ten cents a person. Accommodations have been made to take care of about five hundred followers of the annual Greek floor tilts.

FROSH GRIDDERS SCORE WIN OVER ST. JOHN'S TEAM

Defeat Strong Eleven By Score Of 13 to 6 on Friday, October 19

BILLISOLLY SCORES TWO TOUCHDOWNS

Buff and Blue Eleven Shows Decided Improvement Over First Game

The George Washington freshmen eleven made up for its defeat last Friday, by scoring a win over the strong St. John's team to the tune of 13 to 6. The G. W. fighting machine functioned more evenly than it did last week, and an improvement in all the departments was noticed.

St. John's made the first score of the game by going through left tackle for a touchdown on the first play of the second quarter. They held this lead only a short time, however, as Billisolly went over a fumble on the Saint's ten-yard line. Gates dropped the extra point to place the freshmen in the lead.

The Frosh held the lead for the remainder of the game, increasing it by six points in the last few moments of the fray when Billisolly charged through for eight yards and a touchdown. The try for point failed, but the Frosh had won the game.

Both teams played good hard foot; ball and each made seven first downs. Both teams suffered somewhat from penalties. St. John's losing twenty-five yards and the Freshmen forty yards through this medium.

Gates Makes First Gain

George Washington won the toss, and chose to receive. St. John's started off with a nice kick, but lost ground when they were penalized and G. W. gained the first down. Gates plunged through the line for a nine-yard gain, only to have it erased by successive losses by Adams and himself. Adams then kicked out of danger and a fine tackle was made by Hudson.

"Red" Boyle was on his toes when he covered up a St. John fumble on their fourth down. Stagers plunged through the center for an eight-yard gain, but the Frosh lost the ball on a fumble by Adams. St. John's then took time out, and this seemed to be the necessary fire to start them on their way, as they marched down the field, gaining five successive first downs culminating in a touchdown at the opening of the second period. They missed their try for extra point and then kicked off to G. W.

G. W. failed to gain in two downs, so Adams punted into alien territory. St. John's had the ball only a few seconds as Adams pounced on a fumble by the high-schoolers. An exchange of offside penalties forced the Frosh to kick, although Gates had made a nice gain through five yards but a costly fumble gave G. W. the ball on the ten-yard line. A moment later Billisolly had shoved the oval across the line for the Freshmen's first points. Gates put his team in the van by making a very nice drop-kick over the uprights.

G. W. kicked off and St. John's immediately returned the ball by a punt. The Freshmen then started an advance netting them two successive first downs. A pretty charge through the center of the line was made as the first half ended.

Third Period

The Freshmen kicked to St. John's as the half opened. A penalty to St. John's and a fumble recovered by G. W. gave the Freshmen the ball. Stagers went around right end for a nice gain, but the Frosh lost the ball on downs. Morris charged through center for a first down for the Saints, but they were then forced to punt. The Freshmen fumbled but covered it up and made a considerable gain. Stagers went through for another gain, but was later held and Adams punted. St. John's made a first down through center but this gain was wiped out as they lost fifteen yards as a result of holding. The tackling of Griggs and Boyle was a feature in this period.

Adams received a punt and advanced for short distance. He then made a poor kick that lost about ten yards. A continuous smearing of St. John's plays forced them to boot to the Frosh. A G. W. fumble was grabbed up by St. John's as the quarter came to a close.

An exchange of punts gave the Frosh an advantage with Stagers giving a fine exhibition of tackling. A succession of runs by Billisolly, Stagers and Gates gave G. W. twenty-five yards. They lost five, however, for stalling, and then were dropped for another loss. Shely, who was inserted in the line-up, early in the period, made a beautiful punt of fifty yards. St. John's then returned the kick, and Shely returned it thirty yards.

Again Shely booted for the Freshmen. A series of short losses and gains was capped by a long run by Stagers, who received a perfect pass from Adams. Billisolly, with a nice run, placed the pignik in a scoring position for G. W.

Billisolly Scores

A first down was made as Adams placed the ball on the three-yard line. Another plunge by Bob Adams netted two yards, but on the next play there was a fumble which was recovered by the freshmen with the goal eight yards away. Billisolly wiggled through the St. John's aggregation for the necessary yardage, and another touchdown was recorded to the Freshmen's credit. Shely missed the try for point.

The Freshmen kicked off to St. John's, who immediately tried a long

PHILLIPS, SEIDEL, WIN IN MATCHES

Both at Top of Game as They Advance to Tennis Semi-Final

SEEDED PLAYER LOSES

Staubly Loses to Seidel in Only Upset; Considine Meets Jaquette

Captain Larry Phillips and Bill Seidel were the first players to reach the semi-final round in the men's Fall tennis tournament. Both came through brilliantly in their matches this week.

Phillips, after easily disposing of Hunnicutt in a second round match by scores of 6-1, 6-2, defeated Bradley to advance to the semi-finals. Bradley, who is a former member of the Ohio State Tennis team, gave Phillips a much harder fight than the scores of 6-1, 6-3 would indicate.

In another quarter-final match, Seidel sprang a mild surprise in winning from Staubly, a member of last year's university team and a seeded player. Staubly did not lose until after he had waged a gallant fight, only succumbing after three hard sets. The scores were 6-3, 6-8, 6-1.

Both Phillips and Seidel, who appear to be at the top of their game, meet this week and the winner enters the finals.

Considine Favorite

Bob Considine, who is the ranking player of the University, will meet Charlie Jaquette in a quarter-final match. It is expected that Considine will be the victor in quick order.

The remaining seeded player, Sickler, meets Wallenstein in the second round and if he succeeds in winning, as likely, will play Douthit, a brilliant newcomer, in the quarter-finals.

Due to the inability of the players to make satisfactory arrangements for playing the matches, progress in the tourney has been slow. It is hoped, however, that most of the matches will be completed this week.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL TO START DECEMBER 1

Prospects For Strong Varsity Bright; Omwake and Brandenburg Only Two Lost

Girls varsity and class basketball practice will begin under the instruction of Miss Davis and her assistant, Jenny Turnbull, on December first in the gymnasium.

Sophomores may elect basketball to satisfy their physical education requirement. Classes will be held on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday afternoons from one to four.

The class schedule will be run off sometime in January.

New varsity material will be picked from the class games. Varsity prospects are good, as Louise Omwake and Betty Brandenburg are the only ones lost from last year's squad.

Games are tentatively scheduled with American University, Bridgewater College, Swarthmore, and William and Mary, three games to be played here, and one away, according to an announcement made today by Maxine Alverson, student manager.

G. W. WOMEN ATTENDED HOCKEY CAMP IN PENNA

Mrs. Russell, Director of Physical Education for Women at G. W. U., spent her third year at the Hockey Camp at Pocono, Pa., last summer.

The Hockey Camp is managed by Miss Constance Appleby, who was the Physical Instructor at Bryn Mawr until this year. Many students who are interested in hockey, as well as teachers of physical education, attend this camp. All the coaches are English.

This year, in addition to Mrs. Russell, Miss Davis, Assistant Director of Physical Education for Women, and five students of the University also attended the camp. Among these were Jenny Turnbull, Caroline Hobbs, Ruth Chidblom, and Betty Zimmerman.

WOMEN'S TENNIS REACHES FINALS

Final Matches Played as Exhibition on University Tennis Court After Oct. 23rd

MGR. REFEREES FINALS

Scores of Third and Quarter Final Rounds of Women's Matches Announced

The annual Fall singles tennis tournament for women, which has been in progress since October 6, has progressed to the final matches. The condition of the university tennis court made it impossible for the semi-finals to be played there, but the final match will be played off on the campus after October 23rd.

The fourth round was completed on Friday, October 19, and the semi-finals played off on October 20, 22, and 23. Myrtle Crouch, manager of women's tennis and her assistants, Elizabeth McKelvy, Winifred Beall and Eleanor Kise refereed the semi-finals and will also referee the finals. The results of the third round were:

Wright defeated Asmuth, 6-0, 6-2; Turnbull defeated Collins, 4-6, 6-1, 6-3; Butler defeated J. Miles, 6-4, 6-3; Sproul defeated Breckenridge, 6-1, 7-5; Craven defeated Hurd, 6-3, 6-3; Detweiler defeated Palmer, 6-0, 6-0; Laudick defeated Crumley, 6-2, 6-3; Morris defeated Lum, 6-3, 6-2.

Jennie Turnbull, who drew a bye to the second round, reached the quarter finals by defeating Gates in the second round and Collins in the third round with a score of 4-6, 6-1, and 6-3.

Billie Wright, another seeded player to reach the quarter finals won both her matches over Pierson in the second round and Asmuth with ease.

Other players who reached the quarter finals are: Sproul, Butler, Detweiler, Craven, Laudick, and Morris. Sproul defeated Butler, 6-3, 6-3; Detweiler defeated Craven, 6-1, 6-3; and Laudick defeated Morris, 7-5, 6-4. Turnbull and Wright were forced to discontinue their game after one set had been played due to rain, but they played the game off later in the week.

Mary Sproul, who reached the semi-finals, drew a bye to the second round, defeated Peterson by default in the second, defeated Breckenridge, 6-1, 7-5, in the third round.

Ruth Laudick, seeded to the second round, defeated E. Miles in the second, defeated Crumley 6-2, 6-3 in the third round, and was scheduled to play Detweiler in the semi-finals.

The winners of the semi-final round will compete in the finals in an exhibition match, after which the list of ranking-tennis players composing the varsity tennis team will be compiled.

G. W. U. Women Play On D. C. Hockey Club

Mount Washington Hockey Team Defeats Washington Hockey Club With Score of 6 to 1

The Washington Women's Hockey Club suffered defeat at the hands of the Mount Washington team at Baltimore on Saturday, October 20, with a score of 6 to 1.

The Mount Washington squad formed staunch opposition to the local team in their strong organization and speedy team work and were assisted in rolling up their score by the weak forward line of the Washington team. The only goal made by the locals was scored by Mary Sproul.

The Washington Hockey Club team was largely composed of members of the George Washington University hockey squad, accompanied also by Mrs. Russell, director of women's physical education and Miss Eugenia Davis, George Washington coach. George Washington students playing on the team were: Evelyn Folsom, Mary Sproul, Ruth Chidblom, Josephine Irey, Louise Du Bose, Mary Ewin, and Caroline Hobbs.

GOOD PROSPECTS FOR WOMEN'S RIFLE TEAM

Coach Walter Stokes to be Assisted By Betty Clark and Helen Prentiss

Women's rifle practice opened regularly on October 15, at stated hours in the rifle range in Corcoran Hall with prospects for another overwhelming season.

For two successive years the women's varsity rifle team of George Washington University has won both the National Rifle Association and the Dot and Circle championships under the direction of Coach Walter Stokes. No other team has ever equalled this record of acquiring both championships in one year. Coach Stokes will again manage the varsity squad and will be assisted by Betty Clark, last year's manager, and Helen Prentiss, who also acted as assistant coach last year. This summer Helen Prentiss turned out the girls' National Camp Championship Rifle Team at Camp Allegheny, West Virginia, which bettered team scores of all divisions with a score of 963, even surpassing the Boys' National Camp Championship team which was coached by Jack Fluge, a former G. W. U. rifleman.

The schedule for rifle practice for women is:

Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday, 11:00 to 3:00.

Thursday night, 5:00 to 10:00.

During these hours the range is open and in charge of an assistant manager and coach at all times.

EPISCOPALIANS TO ASSIST IN RAISING CATHEDRAL FUND

G. W. Club Sponsors Drive For $1,000 Toward Washington Cathedral

MONEY TO BE USED IN STUDENT MEMORIALS

Organization Meeting to be Held Thursday Evening to Discuss Plan

Episcopalians in George Washington University have been asked to aid in raising a fund of approximately $1,000 to be used in the building of the National Episcopal Cathedral at Mt. St. Albans, Washington, D. C. The Episcopal Club of G. W., which is affiliated with the National Student Council of the Episcopal Church, is sponsoring a movement among the other units of the Council to raise a sum of money to be used in building some portion of the Washington Cathedral. Each member unit of the National Student Council has been asked to make a small donation toward this fund.

This sum will be gathered by the local group and the total will be given to the Cathedral. The George Washington Episcopalians have pledged not less than twenty dollars, and it is expected that a similar pledge will be forthcoming from about forty other groups.

Conferences Planned

When an idea is had of the total sum available a conference between the Dean of the Cathedral, the Executive Secretary of the Cathedral Chapter, the architect of the Cathedral, and members of the George Washington Episcopal Club will determine just how the money is to be spent.

Two plans are now under consid-

Local Smoker Learns Bitter Lesson Abroad

New York, March 13, 1928
Larus & Bro. Co., Richmond, Va.
Gentlemen:

I have used Edgeworth Smoking Tobacco for the past twenty-five years. Two years ago I took my trusty briar along on a trip abroad, intending to revel in the delights of the famous mixtures in London. I confess that I did not carry along with me any of the little blue tins of Edgeworth. But the joke was on me. I went back to Edgeworth, only this time I had to pay 45c for a 15c tin of Edgeworth!

Incidentally, on a trip through England and later through Ireland, I was surprised to find the wide distribution and ready sale of Edgeworth in Great Britain. A frequent and familiar sign in Dublin, Cork and other cities in Ireland was a white streamer announcing a new shipment of Edgeworth. To make such a conquest in the home of smoking tobacco must be very gratifying to your house.

Sincerely, J. B. Kelly

eration. The first is to make a donation toward two or more of the sculptured bosses in the dome of the structure, which cost in the neighborhood of $300 each to install.

The second plan anticipates a contribution toward one of the smaller hand-carved statues of the saints which will eventually occupy the niches in the walls of the Cathedral. This plan would call for an outlay of between $800 and $1,000.

Plan Endorsed

Representatives of the Cathedral have heartily endorsed the plan and think it "would be a fine thing for the students of the nation to be represented in building the National Cathedral." Clerical and lay members of the National Student Council also favored the plan when they were informed of it.

Contact has been made with men connected with the student groups at the University of Texas, and at Amherst College, who have pledged their aid to this undertaking.

It is expected that all donations will be in the form of contributions made once and for all, but word has been received by members of the George Washington Episcopal Club that some units have in mind a plan calling for a pledge of a sum of ten to twenty dollars per year for a period of five or more years.

Rolston Lyon, an ex-president of the local club, is handling the contacts between the Cathedral officers and the different units.

To Hold Meeting

A meeting of the George Washington Episcopal Club is to be held this Thursday night, October 25, in Corcoran Hall 29, at 8 p. m. The Cathedral question will be brought up at this time although the meeting will be the first open session the club has held this year.

All Episcopalians in the University, as well as their friends, are invited to attend.

G. W. MATHEMATICIANS HEAR PROF. WOOLARD

"The Calculus of Tensors" is the Subject of Interesting Talk at Meeting

At the first meeting of the Mathematics Club on Monday, October 15, 1928, Professor Edgar W. Woolard lectured on "The Calculus of Tensors."

The subject of tensors is of particular interest at the present time because of the fact that it forms the ground upon which the Einstein Theory of Relativity is based. Mr. Woolard traced the development of the tensor operation from the scalar and vector and illustrated some of their applications in physics, particularly in connection with the theory of relativity. This is Mr. Woolard's first year as an instructor at George Washington University.

The Mathematics Club, which meets every two weeks, is open to all students of mathematics, and everyone who is especially interested in the subject is urged to attend all the meetings.

There are lectures by students, members of the faculty, and outside speakers on vital questions in relation to mathematics at each meeting. The meetings are informal and without dues or obligations.

The next meeting will be held on Monday, October 29, at 8:00 p. m. o'clock, in Corcoran Hall, room 17.

Newman Club Members Hold Lively Meeting

Plans Are Made For Future Activity, Including Halloween Dance And Card Parties

"Modern Marriage Problems" was the subject of the open forum sponsored by the Newman Club at its regular meeting in Corcoran Hall on October 18. The meeting, which was attended by approximately seventy-five members of the club, was one of the most interesting in its history. It was evident from the spirited discussions engaged in that the consensus of opinion attributed most matrimonial failures of the present age to be due principally to a mistaken idealism of romance as the only factor to be considered in taking the important step.

Jose Espinosa, chairman of the committee in charge of the Halloween Costume Dance, announced that all arrangements had been completed for the affair which will be held at the Hotel Hamilton on Monday, October 29. Agnes O'Brien, Larry Gage and Walter Delaney are in charge of ticket distribution, decorations will be handled by Marie Collins and Mary Connolly, and publicity will be handled by Pat Smyth. The reception committee will comprise Bernardine Horn, Melita Chavez, and Tom McCarthy. The chaperons will be Senora Felix Cordova y Davila and Miss Louise McGuire.

The social committee of the club have recommended an interesting series of social functions to follow the Halloween Dance, the first of which will be a card party in the early part of December.

DR. GRIGGS ADDRESSES D. C. BOTANY SOCIETY

In his presidential address to the Botanical Society of Washington at its annual meeting, held Tuesday, October 16, at the Cosmos Club, Dr. Robert F. Griggs presented to the Society his new "Key to the Families of Flowering Plants."

Dr. Griggs pointed out the difficulties the average person finds in naming plants. He paid tribute to the monumental work of Gray and Britton, but pointed out the need of progress in simplifying the science.

The new "Key," which has been tested for four years in Dr. Griggs' laboratory, will come from the press within the next few months.

G. W. RELIGIOUS SURVEY IS MADE

Census Shows That Religious Students in University Are in Majority

SHOWS NUMEROUS FAITHS

Members of Twenty-five Different Christian Denominations Signify Church Affiliation

That religious students of the University outnumber non-believers but by a slight margin was revealed today through figures released by Provost Wilbur's Office.

Of the 4,032 pupils enrolled in the University proper, exclusive of the Medical and Law Schools, 2,106 answered the optional questionnaire giving their religious affiliations; 1,926 failed to indicate any pretence of persuasion, sect, denomination, creed, or belief.

About 150 of those answering recorded their religious preference, but intimated that they were not church members; 12 gave only their names and omitted all other data.

Some twenty-five Christian and the Jewish denominations were recorded. No Mohammedans, Buddhists, or Confucianists have enrolled for the first semester of 1928-29, according to the answers received.

As shown in the report the Presbyterians lead the theological listing with 339 students. The Greek Orthodox, Mennonite, Nazarene, and Russian Church are represented by one each.

The cards asking for the pupils' religious affiliation were attached to their registration blanks. The questions were: What is your church preference, are you a church member, what church do you attend in this city?

The following sects are represented in number as follows:

Presbyterian, 339; Methodist Episcopal, 312; Catholic, 257; Episcopalians, 265; Baptists, 231; Jewish, 127; Southern Methodists, 104; Lutheran, 95; Congregational, 93; Christian Church, (Church of God), 62; Christian Science, 44; Unitarian, 44; Protestant, 31; Latter Day Saints, 45; Methodist Protestant, 15; United Brethren, 13; Grace Reform, 12; Friends, 8; Evangelical, 4; United Presbyterian, 3; Pentecostal, 2; Universalist, 2; Greek Orthodox, 1; Mennonite, 1; Nazarene, 1; Russian Church, 1.

D. A. R. Essay Prize Open To Competition

Attitude of Charles James Fox Towards American Revolution to be Subject

The Daughters of the American Revolution Essay Prize for 1928, a gold medal, was not awarded in June, 1928, because of failure of competitors. Therefore, it is open during the Fall term to undergraduate students of Junior and Senior grade, who have taken the General course in U. S. History, and at least one second section course in American or English history.

This year's subject is: "The Attitude of Charles James Fox toward the American Revolution." The essay is to be between 2,000 and 3,000 words, must be typewritten and must include a list of works consulted, accompanied by a statement of the sources taken in history. The essays must be handed to Professor Churchill not later than January 7, 1929. The Gold Medal Prize will be awarded by the D. A. R. at the exercises on February 22.

G. W. FROSH TO BE HOSTS OF HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

Seniors and Juniors of D. C. and Nearby Towns to be Feted

High school juniors and seniors of Washington and nearby towns will be the guests of the Freshman class of the University at the football game between New York College and George Washington on Saturday afternoon, October 27, at 2:30 o'clock, at the Wilson Memorial Stadium.

The entertainment of the high school students at one of the home games of the season is an annual custom. As usual, a special section will be reserved for them in the stands. The guests have been asked to bring their high school banners.

Each of the Washington high schools has been visited by a member of the student body of the University, who is a graduate of that high school, and who extended the invitation in person at an assembly.

SIXTY WOMEN ENROLL FOR GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

Robert Harmon Will Direct Practice on Mondays and Saturdays

The George Washington University Girls' Glee Club meets for practice on Monday and Saturday at 12:15, in Corcoran Hall 1, under the direction of Robert Harmon.

The officers of the club are: Helen Prentiss, president, Helen Humphrey, secretary, and Caroline Synder, manager. The enrollment of the club is about sixty members with an average attendance of forty-five. Practices will continue until the club begins concerts and the music programs of the year start.

Enrollment will close on Monday, October 23.

History Club Makes Donation To Alcove

Donations to be Used for Charles Swisher Memorial Alcove in New Library

The History Club of George Washington University has donated $500 to the University for the purpose of establishing a Charles Swisher Memorial Alcove in the library. They have donated some very rare history edition to this memorial for the use of the history students of the University and will transfer these editions to the new library as soon as it is erected. They plan to donate $100 this year.

THETA DELTA CHI WINS LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP

Dick Battle, Pitcher, Strikes Out Thirteen Men For Victorious Baseball Nine

By taking Sunday's game from the St. A. E's the Theta Delta Chi baseball nine definitely established its claim to the championship of League A. The game, however, was played under protest of the Sig Alpha who objected to the eligibility of some of the Theta Delta players.

As a result of their victory the winners will meet the Sigma Chi nine, winners in League B, for the championship of the inter-fraternity series and the silver loving cup which is offered annually by the Inter-Fraternity council.

The victory of the Theta Deltas is due in a large part to the stellar brand of pitching tossed up by their ace, "Dick" Battle. Battle allowed only four hits to the heavy-hitting St. A. E's while striking out 13 men. That Battle's pitching was almost airtight is attested by the fact that in only one inning were the losers able to score, when in the sixth they pushed across two markers.

For the remainder of the route Dick held his opponents scoreless, while his teammates battered the slants of Stull for 12 runs.

Although each of the winning nine got at least one hit, the share of the slugging must be divided equally among 4 players who collected 3 safe blows apiece. Sterrett, Denicke, O'Holloran and Brown are the members of the winning nine who hit safely three times.

The victors started their scoring early in the game when they pushed over a marker in the first inning. It was only a taste of what was to come, however, for in the second frame they tallied four times to put the game beyond the reach of their opponents.

The scoring did not cease, for in the fourth, fifth and sixth the Theta Deltas scored two, one, and four runs, respectively, for their final total of 12. Altogether the winners made 17 safe blows off the southpaw of the Sig Alpha, who apparently was off form.

The Theta Delta Chi team will probably meet the Sigma Chi nine next Sunday, if the game can be arranged. It will probably be played on the Ellipse diamond.

G. W. U. HISTORY CLUB HAS LARGE GATHERING

Purpose of Club Outlined at Reunion Of Old And New Members

A meeting of the George Washington University Club was held Tuesday, October 16, in the Women's Building. This meeting was in the nature of a gathering for the purpose of reuniting the former members and welcoming the new members, and was attended by an unusually large number.

A brief business meeting held first, was presided over by Miss Elsie Green, vice-president of the organization. The purpose of the club, its past contributions to the University and to the students, and its expectations for the coming year were outlined. The policy of the club was also stated to those present. This policy consists in having a member of the faculty speak at the alternate meetings and prominent men at all others.

The meeting was followed by games and refreshments.

ARCHITECTS WILL DINE AT COLLIER'S INN NOV. 13

Faculty to Meet With Architectural Students at Annual Banquet

The faculty and students of the School of Architecture will meet together at the annual dinner which is being planned to take place at Collier's Inn, Eighteenth and Columbia Road, on Tuesday evening, November 13. The committee in charge includes Leon Jester, chairman; H. E. Matthews, E. W. Brown, L. S. Keefeauver, and F. E. Clango. While arrangements are going ahead rapidly and plans are reaching their final shape, the price per plate has not yet been fixed. The committee assures, however, that the sum will be small.

AVIATION COURSE GIVEN

A course in ground school training in aviation is being given in the College of Engineering. The first meeting of the course was held on Wednesday night, October 17, at 7:30, in Corcoran Hall 29. Classes will be held every Monday and Thursday evening from 8 to 9:30, in Corcoran Hall 29.

C. D. S. MEN HEAR WOMEN WRANGLE OVER COMPLEXES

Old Tradition of Debating Society Broken When Varsity Women Debaters Speak

POPULAR PSYCHOLOGY FAVORED BY COLUMBIAN

Suppression of Anti-Saloon League To Be Subject of October 26 Debate

A century-old tradition of the Columbian Debating Society was broken last Friday evening, October 19, when an all-women debate was staged as the main feature of the weekly meeting of the organization.

Conservative members who had seen earlier days when Columbian debates were purely men's affairs, wagged their heads and deplored the leniency of the present administration in allowing women to participate in their discussions.

But even the most staid of the conservatives had to admit that the twentieth century Potlucks who argued before them that night were able speakers and they did not voice any objection when three of the women debaters sought admission as members of the society.

Louise Feinstein, Ruth Kerman, Helen Prentiss and Marjorie Mothershead, four stalwart members of the women debating squad of the University, argued on the subject, "Resolved: That the popular reading of psychology undermines morality." The same subject will be debated between the local team and college women of Great Britain, who are due to arrive in Washington soon.

Debaters Answer Questions

The women debaters rent the air with discussions on different complexes, pseudo-psychology, Freudism and psycho-analysis. They were made to answer now and then perturbing questions from the Columbian men. Also Professor George Leslie Farnham, of public speaking, who was present at the debate, asked many interesting questions. The varsity women debaters demonstrated, however, that they could not be outdone in repartee. Louise Feinstein, first speaker for the affirmative, declared, "The masses can not understand psychology. They do not have the necessary background. From what they read they make hasty conclusions, which are extremely dangerous to society."

Helen Prentiss, first speaker for the negative, argued eloquently that the charges made by the first speaker of the affirmative had no foundation. "On the other hand," she said, "psychology leads to better morality. If only people would think how they are swayed easily by advertisements catering to their prejudices, they would take up the study of psychology and learn how to counteract the impositions of many advertisers."

Kerman Attacks Psychology

Ruth Kerman attacked vigorously popular psychology. "The keynote of popular psychology is 'I, egoistic I,'" she said. "Popular psychology develops selfishness. We must not have any complexes. We should adjust ourselves with our surroundings and not develop a selfish ego." Marjorie Mothershead asserted that the popular reading of psychology should not be condemned. "It is impossible for everybody to go to college."

It is impossible for everybody to go to college.

DRAMA CLUB TO DISCUSS PLAY AT MEETING OCT. 24

Things of Interest to be Brought Before First Meeting of New Organization

HENNINGER WRITES PLAY

Full Length Play By Student Is Result of Much Actual Stage Experience

The play for the annual George Washington University Drama Club production has been practically decided on, according to Edward Moulton, student member of the faculty committee on dramatics. The presentation will take place during the last week of March at the Wardman Park Theater.

Pern Henninger, a veteran member of the drama club, has completed a three-act play of great merit which may be presented this year. He has worked on varsity productions for three years, designing and executing scenery, planning stage lighting, and sets, and directing and acting in plays, and consequently his manuscript is the result of actual stage experience.

The drama club has announced that it has several big programs for the near future, and that careful attention will be paid to talent displayed for parts in the varsity play.

An unusually large number of students is expected at the first meeting to be held October 24, at 8 p. m., in Corcoran Hall, Room 21, it was explained, since interest in this branch of activity seems to be increasing.

It is important that everyone interested in the annual varsity show attend this meeting when future programs will be discussed. The cast for the spring production will be chosen from those who have demonstrated their worth in other productions which are scheduled. It was announced.

Students Surprised By Helen Humphrey As a Snake Charmer

The latest coed activity at George Washington University is snake charming. A full grown Milk Snake appeared on the campus last Thursday afternoon twined gracefully around Helen Humphrey's neck. Before a quickly gathering audience of admiring students, Helen then demonstrated her charm by playing with the little reptile, showing that it was literally "milk as milk" in her hands.

Inspired by her example, several college men and women asked permission to handle the snake, and under her guidance did so, although rather squeamishly. The snake soon tired of their attentions, however, and was returned to the Botany Laboratory, whence it was later carried by Helen to her home in Cabin John.

The snake, which is red in color with white rings, was first seen by Helen and her sister while walking in the woods near their home. It is non-poisonous.

EDITORS ADDRESS HATCHET STAFF

Chairman Angel and Henninger Speak to Editorial Staff on News Gathering Methods

STAFF IS TO BE REDUCED

Only Twenty Reporters Needed to Run Paper; Ninety Now on Staff

A compulsory meeting of the Editorial Staff of the Hatchet was held on Thursday, October 18, at 7:30 p. m., in Corcoran Hall 29. At this meeting, Herbert Angel, Chairman of the Board of Editors, and Pern Henninger, one of the Editors, told the reporters how to write a good news story and what the faults of a bad one are.

Only those who attended the meeting of those who were excused by Herbert Angel are to receive assignments next week. There are ninety people trying out for positions on the Staff and only twenty people are needed if they are good.

High Standing Stressed

The Hatchet is considered one of the best collegiate papers in the country, and it is the aim of the Editorial Board to uphold this standard. Therefore, only those who are truly interested are to be retained on the Staff. The Hatchet is a $10,000 a year project and involves the money of the advertiser as well as that of the University. It is not a side-issue, and just another activity.

Herbert Angel announced that a new department will be instituted in the next issue to take care of errors that are called to the attention of the Board.

He also announced that in a few days a new style booklet will go to press which will tell all about The Hatchet and its make-up. It will contain in addition to a style sheet a section on how to write headlines. Rules for preparing copy will also be included in this booklet which will be given to every reporter.

HISTORY OF ZETA PSI WRITTEN BY BEMENT

Written in Collaboration With His Father, Who is Also Zeta Psi

Douglas Bement, Instructor in English at George Washington has just published The Story of Zeta Psi, an informal chronicle of the eighty years of that fraternity's life, written in collaboration with his father, who is also a Zeta Psi and Headmaster of Ashcroft School.

His book is one of the first attempts at the history of a fraternity and its writing presented considerable difficulty as it is intended to be used as a Bible for fraternity neophytes and at the same time to satisfy the reminiscences of old graduates. The Story of Zeta Psi is the result of two and a half years research into the archives of the fraternity in New York, and information gathered from letters solicited from one graduate from each chapter every four years. The material obtained in this way had to be carefully sorted, of course, and much of it discarded. The book is in two parts, first, the general history of the fraternity, written by Mr. Bement, senior, and second, a history of each chapter, written by his son.

Zeta Psi, founded in 1848, is one of the oldest fraternities in the country, and one of the most conservative. It has only twenty-nine chapters, most of which are in the North. Zeta Psi was the first Greek letter fraternity to have a chapter in Canada and also, the first on the West Coast. Two of the best known Zeta Psi's are Speaker Longworth of the House of Representatives, and Attorney General Sargent.

COLUMBIA

"Our Dancing Daughters," the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer sound picture that has been playing to capacity business at Loew's Columbia for the past two weeks, will continue for a third week. Joan Crawford plays the leading feminine role and is supported by a cast of well known players, including Anita Page, Dorothy Sebastian, Nils Asther, John Mack Brown, Edward Nugent and others.

The story concerns a reckless flapper who kisses freely and loses the affection of the man she loves because of it. Her chum, a girl who has loved not wisely but too well, is married, but finds that her husband looks upon her former male friends with suspicion. The two girls, despairing of happiness, attend a gay bon voyage party, where the gold digger who has married the man the first girl loved creates a sensation. The husband, his eyes opened to his wife's duplicity, realizes he really loves the girl he rejected. In a moment of drunken frenzy the gold-digging wife hurls herself down a flight of stairs and is killed. The tragedy brings both couples to the realization that life is more than a whirl of pleasure.

Marion Harris, the songbird of jazz, and Leo Beers, famous whistling songster, also are presented in two Metro Movietone acts. Another sound feature is the Fox Movietone News. Added attractions include the M-G-M News, a color classic, "Gold," and the Columbia Orchestra, under Claude Barrows.

EARLE

Billie Dove, never more charming, will be seen in the most dramatic role of her career in "The Night Watch," at the Earle Theater this week. In the role of the wife of a naval officer who is falsely accused of murder of which he can be cleared only by her testimony, and this testimony will cast a shadow upon her own honor. Donald Reed and Paul Lukas have the leading masculine roles; and Nicholas Soussanin, Gustave Partes, Nicholas Bela and Anita Carvine are prominent in the supporting cast and present finely drawn characterizations.

"The Night Watch" is another high spot in the directorial career of Alexander Korda, whose "Private Life of Helen of Troy," "The Yellow Lily," and other American productions have placed him in the front rank of film directors.

The story is based on the play of a few years ago, "In the Night Watch." The surrounding program will include orchestral accompaniment and overture by the orchestra; Daniel Breeskin conducting; Vitaphone presentations of Winnie Lightner, the one-minute girl; Myers and Hagard in "The Arkansas Travelers," and a short Hebrew comedy sketch bearing the title, "The Lemon."

FOX

"Mother Machree" as a song has been sung almost for a generation. Ernest Ball wrote the music; Chauncey Olcott the lyrics. It brought added fame to both. Rida Johnson Young, a noted writer, conceived the idea of transplanting the suggested story of "Mother Machree" to the screen and William Fox produced it under direction of John Ford, who made "The Iron Horse," "Four Sons" and other successes. Ford, in turn, selected Victor McLaglen for his male lead and Belle Bennett as his mother Machree. To the later falls the role that takes her through the heartache of young motherhood left a widow, down through old age and the recovery and recognition by the son from whom she parted to give him his chance in the New World—the United States.

Others in the cast include Ethel Clayton and Neil Hamilton. The World War forms the pivotal point in the story, but it is not classed as a war story. Rather is it an incident, but an important one.

The stage and subsidiary features include the La Scala Quartet, with the Fox Grand Orchestra, in an orchestral and voice presentation of Verdi's opera, "Rigoletto."

KEITH'S

The screen version of "Craig's Wife," George Kelley's famous play, will be the picture attraction at B. F. Keith's Theater this week, beginning at 2 p. m., Sunday, October 21. "Craig's Wife" had a spectacular New York run and won the Pulitzer prize as the outstanding production of the year. The screen version stars Irene Rich and Warner Baxter with a cast including Virginia Bradford, Lilyan Tashman, Carroll Nye, George Irving, Jane Keckley, Mary Van Burien, Ethel Wales and Ralda Rae.

The stage revue will be "Texas Guinan's 'Padlocks of 1928.'" In 18 gorgeous scenes, with a company of 30 Broadway entertainers. The featured players include Marjorie Leach, Charles Taye, Edward West and Harriett Hilliard.

The performances will run four times daily, from 11:30 a. m. to 11 p. m. Supplementary features complete the show.

METROPOLITAN

The Metropolitan will continue with Al Jolson in the Warner Brothers' Vitaphone special production, "The Singing Fool," during the current week. This will be the fourth and last week of the record-breaking talking picture.

The picture is the story of the joys and heartaches of the people of the cabarets, introducing Jolson as proprietor and master of ceremonies of a hectic New York night club. It reveals a new Al Jolson—an artist who has become a master of the talking screen as though it had always been his chosen medium.

Hiking Is Vindicated At Last In Eyes Of Frosh-Soph Women

Compulsory physical education has at last proved its usefulness. Many a time has the poor, weak freshman or sophomore who has chosen hiking in place of exercise, wended her way to the Lincoln Memorial and back. At last, persistency has been rewarded.

On Friday, the hiking class again tread its weary path but this time by way of the Navy Department. Policemen, mobs of excited citizens and an atmosphere of awful expectancy filled their simple hearts with innocent joy. And as the freshmen and sophomores were lifted in anticipation their eyes met those of Hugo Eckener and his company of air travellers. Looking around for the Graf Zeppelin the younger members of the University were informed by the spectators that it had been parked up in Lakehurst, New Jersey.

ANNUAL G. W. U. VODVIL AT WARDMAN DEC. 6-7

Mitchell and Blackman Named Sorority and Fraternity Assistants; Acts to be in Competition

It was announced today through Edward Moulton, student member of the faculty committee on dramatics, that Harold S. Blackman and Virginia Mitchell have been appointed as assistants to the manager in charge of the annual Greek letter Vodvil which is to be presented at the Wardman Park Theater on December 6 and 7.

Miss Mitchell will be in supervisory charge of the sorority acts which are to be presented, while Mr. Blackman will represent the fraternities. The acts presented this year, as in the case of last year, will be entered in competition for the attractive Dramatic Association cup which will be presented to the group having the best act of the program. A competent list of judges is being considered and those selected will be made known just before the time of the opening performance. It was indicated, however, that a committee of high standing in the Washington dramatic world will consent to pass upon the merits of the acts.

Because of the fact that the Vodvil will be given at the Wardman Park Theater this year instead of at the University gymnasium where the facilities are less favorable, the acts will have to be of an excellent caliber before they will be put upon the program. This statement was made by the committee in charge today. The committee urges, therefore, each fraternity and sorority contemplating an entry to begin the preparation of their act at once.

The girls of the Home Economics Department have been having a new experience during the last week. The Carbonated Beverage Trade Association is having a contest for the best recipe using carbonated drinks. Dr. Storms, representing the association, has been conducting the experiment here. Numerous recipes have been received and the Home Economics Department has been trying them out.
